

In Sofia,
more than 700 engineers design and develop Software, Hardware and Mechanics for:

Head-Up Displays
Driver Information Clusters
Central and Rear Displays
Body Control Modules
Connectivity Management Units
Telematics Control Units

Internship Program in Systems & SW Test

Your responsibilities:

- Learn “how to” and design tests for automotive electronics
- Execute tests in automated test toolset
- Report test results in defect tracking tool

Your qualifications:

- University degree in Computer science, Electronics or last years student
- Theoretical background in script/programming languages and basic testing methods
- Good team player
- Very good English

Your benefits:

- As result of the internship program you will gain product testing knowledge and experience
- Professional development based on up-to-date training programs
- Opportunities for career development in our company
- Working on programs for the world’s leading automakers
- Working in close cooperation with our leading automotive engineers.
- Open and friendly working atmosphere
- Social activities.

Only short-listed applicants will be contacted.

Apply at bgcareer@visteon.com