

With more than 70 years of insurance experience, now backed by KBC Group - a strong international bank assurance group - DZI continues to be a leading player on the Bulgarian Insurance Market.

Our mission is to make people's lives more secure and peaceful and we rely on our talented employees to achieve this ambitious goal! If you join our team, you will be surrounded with colleagues with similar values and you will know how your work impacts society.

We are now looking for a highly motivated team member (full-time job)

Junior actuary - Life Insurance

Duties and responsibilities:

- Participates in the calculation of technical reserves of life products;
- Participates in statistical analysis of various insurance parameters;
- Prepares various types of actuarial reports for management and Regulatory authorities;
- Actively participates in the regular reporting for internal and external purposes.

The successful candidate must have:

- University degree in the area of Insurance, Statistics or Mathematics;
- Knowledge of statistical analysis and insurance or financial mathematics;
- Excellent computer skills – Excel, VBA;
- Fluency in English – written and spoken;
- Solution oriented with excellent analytical and technical skills;
- Team player determined to gain experience in the actuarial field in a young and positive team.

The following experience and knowledge will be appreciated:

- Experience with R or other statistical software;
- Experience with statistical analysis in the insurance or financial area;
- Knowledge of Solvency II;
- Actuarial experience.

We offer:

- Opportunity to join one of the leading insurers on the Bulgarian market, part of KBC Group;
- Work in a highly professional, ethical and friendly working environment;
- Gaining practical experience with specialized actuarial software;
- Ongoing learning and mentoring from qualified experts;
- Competitive remuneration package linked to performance.

If the above opportunity is appealing to you, please send your resume in English to career@dzi.bg as soon as possible. We will be happy to meet you 😊