

Junior .NET Developer

With over 2,000 employees the Hypoport group forms a network of tech companies for the credit, real estate and insurance industry. As part of the Hypoport Group we enjoy the flexibility and independence of a mid-sized company with the opportunities and benefits provided by a German listed corporation.

FIO SYSTEMS AG is part of the Hypoport group since 2018 and we specialize in providing web-based business software solutions. Our products cover all processes in the areas of real estate management and marketing, virtual banking and claim management. FIO was established in 1999 in Leipzig and our office in Sofia opened in 2002. At FIO we create high-value products, and we love working with open-minded people with enthusiasm for innovation and high-quality solutions.

If you are passionate about technology and want to be part of our dynamic team – we look forward to your application!

Your responsibilities:

- Participating in the software development of an enterprise web application
- Implementing new features
- Fixing bugs and performance issues
- Refactoring and improving code in terms of readability, design patterns, architecture
- Writing and maintaining unit tests
- Performing code reviews

What we expect:

- 1 year experience in software development
- Solid knowledge in OOP, algorithms, data structures & design patterns
- Experience or interest in web development with C# and .NET
- Knowledge of relational databases and SQL
- Passion for writing clean and reusable code
- Solid troubleshooting and problem-solving skills
- Teamwork and excellent self-organization
- Good written and spoken English

What we offer:

- Friendly working environment in a skilled and knowledge-sharing team
- Work-life balance - 30 days paid vacation, no overtime, team buildings and celebrations
- Your growth is our priority - Therefore we support you in actively shaping your own personal and career development by offering 10% of your work time for further education
- Flexible working hours and home office options
- Additional health insurance and office massages
- Company lunch and fully equipped kitchen filled with fruits, vegetables, sweets and snacks
- Excellent office location, close to a metro station
- Sounds interesting? Then do not hesitate to send us your application and tell us what you are passionate about!
- We are looking forward to hearing from you.

Sounds interesting?

Then do not hesitate to send us your application and tell us what you are passionate about