Behind Trading212.com and Trader.bg is one of the most successful Bulgarian Internet-based companies on an international scale - Avus Capital. We rank top thanks to our 140+ skilled and enthusiastic teammates. We have a client base of over 1 million investors from 35 countries. We've build 2 web-based trading platforms, mobile apps to go along with them, and lots of innovative financial tools are on the way. We've been around for 10 years, and we are on the lookout for bright and eager minds. This is a shout out to all big thinkers.

Here is an opportunity you will like:

We are looking for a manual QA to take a vacant spot in our QA team based in Sofia, Bulgaria.

To be considered for the job, you'll need to meet the following requirements:

- In-depth understanding of software testing processes;
- Analytical and problem-solving skills that will amaze us;
- Experience with bug tracking and version control systems;
- Very good command of English and iron-strong communication skills

But wait, there's more! These are the bonus points skills:

- A degree in computer science or information technology;
- Knowledge of Linux/Unix operating system;
- Knowledge and experience with Databases and SQL;
- Experience with TestNG, Selenium (web driver) or other similar frameworks;
- Experience with performance and stress testing;
- Experience with testing mobile applications

Now let us tell you what you'll do:

- Analyze new and existing software components and requirements;
- Develop, publish and implement test plans for complex, multi-tier applications (web, iPhone, iPad, Android) throughout the entire life cycle of the software;
- Analyze test results to identify areas of concern and spot weaknesses;
- Work closely with developers following an agile development methodology;
- Running and maintaining automated web tests (but only if you want to)

Obviously, we require a lot but we also give a lot back:

- Cool benefits like health insurance and 22 days of paid vacation every year;
- Competitive salary;
- Support: financially, intellectual and possibly even emotional;
- Company parties, team buildings and social events to-die-for;
- The video games console;
- All the training you require to learn and develop your skills

If all this sounds like your cup of tea, then go ahead and email us your CV to venelina.mazneva@trading212.com !

We thank all applicants for their interest, but only those selected for an interview will be contacted. All personal data of applicants is protected by the law and will be treated as strictly confidential.

Don't just take our words for it; have a look at how we roll -
