

BRILLIANT CONSULTANTS & DEVELOPERS ALWAYS WANTED

WORK IN AN EXCITING, CHALLENGING ENVIRONMENT IN CENTRAL COPENHAGEN FOR SOME OF THE WORLD'S BIGGEST, BEST-KNOWN BRANDS.

BUT WHAT MORE CAN WE OFFER?

With an experienced mentor by your side you'll soon learn best practices and understand technical project structures, research concepts and identify client requirements, understand client strategies and project targets, develop workflows and work out technical specifications and test methods.

Working in close cooperation with the project team, your tasks will include:

- designing data models and coding
- contributing to product implementation/customization
- working out estimates for new and existing clients
- providing feedback, summary and information about your projects, agreeing plans with the client and breaking down projects into manageable chunks
- testing and maintaining client applications and platforms
- participating in daily scrum meetings to meet our clients' expectations of a short time to market

COULD YOU BE OUR NEXT RISING STAR?

We imagine you are ambitious, curious and positive. The complexity of our projects is high, so it's essential that you know your way around technologies such as SQL, XML, JSON, JavaScript, are experienced in html and CSS and fluent in one or more programming languages. You also have a Bachelor's Degree in software development or similar, and a positive, professional and helpful attitude.
